We are one of those thought provoking management training institutions started back in early 90and#39;s for fulfilling needs of french society for change management professionals. Expanding now as the virtual training and consultancy company, we strongly believe in character making and self development of young professionals, especially the one at fresh graduation / student level. We are headquartered in Marseille (France); have main offices in Sweden, Germany, Brazil, Paraguay and Egypt; and a team of over 100 professionals from all over the world. Now we are focusing Asian countries for training and consultancy.
