Foresight Research is a one-stop shop for most of your marketing research needs. Since 2008, we have been catering to clients from a variety of sectors by delivering independent and unbiased consumer and business research. We combine strong analytical capabilities with robust research designs to get a well-rounded understanding of consumers across Pakistan. We have a country-wide network of field teams with offices in Karachi, Lahore, Rawalpindi and Multan. Most of our face to face interviews are now conducted using android devices. This offers a superior data quality both in terms of data authenticity & data accuracy. All the functions of research, including data coding & editing, data processing, analysis are managed in-house by experienced teams. We are the only company in Pakistan to offer a household panel, which comprises around 8350 households across the country belonging to over 150 urban and rural locations. These panelists are visited every month to record their monthly purchases.
