It gives us immense pleasure to introduce our firm Aliand#39;s Apparel, it is a garment-manufacturing unit based in the city of Lahore, Pakistan. Production capacity is based on the excellent workmanship of a very competent staff. We have developed a comprehensive quality control concept, from controlling of incoming material, up to piece-by-piece final inspection of our production. Todayand#39;s fashion and lifestyle sector is more competitive than ever before as companies seek to offer more highly targeted products to ever-wider markets via email and catalogue operations, as well as traditional bricks and mortar. In a world where change is inevitable, your needs becomes our concerns, your satisfaction our aim. We strive to do it in three ways, attainment of highest quality, competitive prices and on time delivery. We believe we can achieve our goals through effective management, intensive skills trained staff and staff motivation. Most of all, we believe in a desire for excellence. We
