JDC Foundation, a charitable and nonprot organization embarked its journey starting from a small camp established at a densely populated area of Aisha Manzil, Karachi. Initially it catered the ood disaster victims and places, but later on, it worked hard to spread its branches and reach outz to an effective infrastructure that deals with liberation and rescue managements all across the province. JDCs diligent efforts resulted in setting up camps which provide immediate aids to the urgent calls and matters. Also it has been successful at establishing free medical camps which rescue and caters the abrupt needs. to be a source of prevailing equality among the mankind irrespective of the specied modern traits of age, class, religion or ethnicities. JDC is a registered organization with a charity commission government of Pakistan. Its wholly operating as an independent charity welfare through the donations of both the members and the non-members. It is free from any government funding programs and agencies. The accounts are always exposed for its donors for self-satisfactory audit inspections.
