Azad Foundation envisions a world where the rights of all children are realized, where every child is protected from violence, exploitation and abuse. Azad Foundation is committed to improve the well-being and self-esteem of alienated and excluded street children, through unconditional positive support, whenever and wherever necessary with the view to reintegrate them with the family and society. It shall ensure and establish that every child on streets is enabled to contribute to the structure of society in the sense of harmony, peace and socially integrated living.
