Remembering to refill your monthly medicines to address chronic conditions can be a hassle. Dawa Asaan, powered by Servaid, is a subscription service that will ensure that you never forget to take your meds. We aim to make your life easier by taking responsibility for delivering your pre-sorted medication, in simple daily pouches. All you have to do is to check the date and take the medication!

Gone are the days where you will now have to remember what you took, and when you took it.
